

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Aviation Organization Analysis and Writing

AVIATN 2200

Credit Hours:

3.00 - 3.00

Course Levels:

Undergraduate (1000-5000 level)

Course Components:

Lecture

Course Description:

This course critically examines aviation organizations, how they manage communication with various stakeholder groups, and implement new policy. Through reading, writing, and critical reflection, students will have a greater understanding of how communication affects the operations of an aviation organization.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Prereq: 2000 and 2100.

Course Goals / Objectives:

- Demonstrate effective communication techniques utilizing verbal, written, and electronic means.
 - Composition, structure, and presentation of information.
-

Course Topics:

- Aviation communications in international and domestic air transportation systems.
 - Flight information collection, preparation, and coordination.
 - Pictorial aviation communication, airport signage, diagrams, and schematics.
 - Radio communication to Ground, Tower, Enroute, other aircraft and arrival authorities.
 - Professional communication for presentation, argument, reporting, and sales and marketing purposes.
-

Designation:

Elective

Required