

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Aviation Engineering Research for Honors Thesis

AVIATN 4999H

Credit Hours:

1.00 - 3.00

Course Levels:

Undergraduate (1000-5000 level)

Course Components:

Independent Study

Course Description:

Supervised research and project work arranged individually for honors students resulting in a written Honors thesis.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Prereq: Honors standing in the College of Engineering, and permission of instructor.

Course Goals / Objectives:

- Develop critical reasoning and treatment of an Aviation topic.
 - Demonstrate by written or electronic media the appropriate methodologies employed for research of the topic.
 - Present conclusion(s) or identify further research possibilities.
-

Course Topics:

- As proposed by student and approved by faculty advisor.
-

Designation:

Elective