

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Departmental Research Seminar

CSE 6891

Credit Hours:

1.00 - 1.00

Course Levels:

Graduate (5000-8000 level)

Course Components:

Lecture

Course Description:

This course consists of lectures and classroom activities on frontier research by faculty members in the Department. The objectives include introducing the students to the research areas being conducted by the graduate faculty in the Department; and encouraging students to become actively involved in one of the research areas.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Prereq: Grad standing in CSE, or permission of instructor.

Course Goals / Objectives:

- Introducing students to the research areas being conducted by the graduate faculty in the Department.
 - Encouraging students to become actively involved in one of the research areas.
-

Course Topics:

- Current research areas being conducted by graduate faculty at the Department of Computer Science and Engineering.
-

Designation:

Required