

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Undergraduate Honors Thesis Research in Engineering Education

ENGREDU 4999H

Credit Hours:

1.00 - 5.00

Course Levels:

Undergraduate (1000-5000 level)

Course Components:

Independent Study

Course Description:

Undergraduate Honors Thesis research on topics of Engineering Education. For student pursuing Honors Research Distinction.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Prereq: Honors standing, CPHR 3.4 or above, Sr standing in the College of Engineering, and permission of instructor.

Course Goals / Objectives:

- Honors program students are offered the opportunity to pursue independent project/research. On topics of Engineering Education
-

Course Topics:

- Honors program students are offered the opportunity to pursue independent project/research. Student presentation and thesis writing included.
-

Designation:

Elective