

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Engineering Teamwork Seminar

ENGR 5695

Credit Hours:

1.00 - 1.00

Course Levels:

Undergraduate (1000-5000 level)

Graduate

Course Components:

Workshop

Course Description:

Interactive training seminar that teaches communications and interpersonal skills vital to success as an engineer in industry. Sponsored by Tau Beta Pi National Engineering Honor Society.

Course Goals / Objectives:

- Gain experience in one-on-one problem solving
 - Gain experience in working in teams
 - Learn how to prepare for, run, and/or participate in group meetings
 - Obtain tools for solving challenging problems in a team setting
 - Learn effective presentation skills
-

Course Topics:

- People Skills
 - Team Chartering
 - Group Processes
 - Analytical Problem Solving
-

Designation:

Elective