

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Exploring Culture and Engineering in India

ENGR 5797.12

Credit Hours:

3.00 - 3.00

Course Levels:

Undergraduate (1000-5000 level)

Graduate

Course Components:

Field Experience

Course Description:

Students will travel to Jaipur, Agra, and Delhi, India to focus on the culture, history, and religion of India. Students will implement a design project they created in spring semester.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Prereq: 4692.01S in Sp Sem.

Course Goals / Objectives:

- To gain an appreciation for Indian culture, history, and religion.
 - To gain experience implementing a design project in a humanitarian context.
 - Participate in a study abroad experience.
-

Course Topics:

- Experience culture, history, and religion of India as well as implement a design project created during ENGR 4692.01S.
-

Designation:

Elective