

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

ENG Graduate Professional Development

ENGR 6000

Credit Hours:

1.00

Course Levels:

Graduate

Course Components:

Lecture

Course Description:

This course will provide graduate students with key professional skills related to their successful navigation through their degree and into their careers.

Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Graduate standing in the College of Engineering

Course Goals / Objectives:

- To enhance graduate student understanding of and ability to execute professional skills related to their successful navigation through their degree and into their careers
-

Course Topics:

- Finding the mentorship you need and communicating effectively with your PI/mentor
 - Individualized Development Plan
 - Managing Up
 - Resumes and CV's
 - Cover Letters
 - The Art of Negotiation
 - Elevator Pitch; technical and layman
 - Active Bystander
 - Entrepreneurship and Commercialization
 - Imposter Syndrome
 - Making Good Talks Great; Improving Communication Skills
-

Designation:

Elective