

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Practice in Operations Research

ISE 8850

Credit Hours:

3.00 - 3.00

---

Course Levels:

Graduate

---

Course Components:

Lecture

---

Course Description:

Application of Operations Research methods in manufacturing, financial, governmental, educational, and service organizations. Students work on actual problems of a sponsoring organization and present oral and written reports.

---

Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Prereq: 881.

---

Course Goals / Objectives:

- Provides real world experience to graduate students in operations research
-

Course Topics:

- Topics vary by semester of offering, and are drawn from a wide range of application areas.
-

Designation:

Elective